

CONNECTIONS

Welcome to the Fall Edition of CANP's Quarterly Newsletter, Connections. We hope that you'll find this new format to be user friendly, and quick to find the information you're most interested in. .

I'd also like to take this opportunity to personally thank you for your involvement in and continued support of CANP as your professional association. I've been here for a year now, and never cease to be amazed by the leadership in this organization or the level of commitment from the general membership. We promise to continue growing for you, listening to your concerns and advocating for nurse practitioners and their patients.

Cheryl Oliver, Executive Director

Roundtable Discussion on Health Care Reform

On October 9, 2009 I had the distinct honor of representing Los Angeles Chapter of the National Association of Hispanic Nurses LA NAHN) and CANP at the panel discussion "Health Care Providers" Roundtable on Health Care Reform...see more

Update from the Educational Affairs Committee

The Education Affairs Committee (EAC) held its first monthly teleconference-meeting in July, set the agenda for the fiscal year, and it is off and running, literally! The committee is made up of 15 energetic "movers" and "shakers" coming from Sacramento all the way to San Diego, all with a renewed mission: "to diversify CANP educational offerings to meet... CANP WINS the American College of Nurse Practitioners State Affiliate Award

The American College of Nurse Practitioners (ACNP) recognizes outstanding work in the legislative arena with an annual award called the ACNP State Affiliate Award. As CANP is a state affiliate of ACNP, we decided to apply for this award based on our... see more

From the VP of Finance

With guidance, advice, and ideas from our management group AMG, CANP's Board of Directors plans the next year's annual budget very carefully each March or April, before the end of the fiscal year (June 30). This past April was no different. As you may know, CANP had a tough year financially during the 2007-2008 fiscal year. We regained some financial stability last year... see more

Do not Fear, the House of Delegates is Near

The CANP House of Delegates is slated to precede the Annual Conference in Anaheim on Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning, March 24th and 25th, 2010. This is one of CANP's most important events as it is the venue whereby members decide the future direction of CANP. All full members are eligible to be a delegate but... see more

Update your Standardized Procedures in the New Year

December 3, 2010

Rapid legislative changes at the end of the session resulted in very favorable results for CANP. Earlier in September, our SB 294 included both the nurse practitioner-specific authority to order durable medical... see more

Words from the Membership Chair

In order to stimulate renewal interest within each chapter, the Membership Committee put forth a friendly competition amongst local chapters. Those local chapters that achieved 90% renewal rate were to be rewarded with a FREE registration certificate to our 2010 Educational Conference to be held at the Disneyland Resort... see more
